

THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
WESTERN DIVISION

CHARLES DOTSON,

Plaintiff,

CASE NO.:

WELLS FARGO BANK, N.A.,

Defendant.

COMPLAINT

COMES NOW, Plaintiff, CHARLES DOTSON, by and through the undersigned counsel, and sues Defendant, WELLS FARGO BANK, N.A., and in support thereof respectfully alleges violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 et seq. (“TCPA”).

INTRODUCTION

1. The TCPA was enacted to prevent companies like Defendant from invading American citizen’s privacy and to prevent abusive “robo-calls.”

2. “The TCPA is designed to protect individual consumers from receiving intrusive and unwanted telephone calls.” Mims v. Arrow Fin. Servs., LLC, 132 S. Ct. 740 (2012).

3. “Senator Hollings, the TCPA’s sponsor, described these calls as ‘the scourge of modern civilization, they wake us up in the morning; they interrupt our dinner at night; they force the sick and elderly out of bed; they hound us until we want to rip the telephone out of the wall.’ 137 Cong. Rec. 30, 821 (1991). Senator Hollings presumably intended to give telephone subscribers another option: telling the auto-dialers to simply stop calling.” Osorio v. State Farm Bank, F.S.B., 746 F. 3d 1242, 1256 (11th Cir. 2014).

4. According to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), “Unwanted calls and texts are the number one complaint to the FCC. There are thousands of complaints to the FCC every month on both telemarketing and robocalls. The FCC received more than 215,000 TCPA complaints in 2014.” Fact Sheet: Wheeler Proposal to Protect and Empower Consumers Against Unwanted Robocalls, Texts to Wireless Phones, Federal Communications Commission, (May 27, 2015), https://apps.fcc.gov/edocs\_public/attachmatch/DOC-333676A1.pdf.

13. Plaintiff is the subscriber, regular user and carrier of the cellular telephone number (901) ***-3138, and was the recipient of Defendant’s calls.

Upon information and belief, some or all of the calls Defendant made to Plaintiff’s cellular telephone number were made using an “automatic telephone dialing system” which has the capacity to store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator (including but not limited to a predictive dialer) or an artificial or prerecorded voice; and to dial such numbers as specified by 47 U.S.C § 227(a)(1) (hereinafter “auto-dialer calls”). Plaintiff will testify that his knew it was an auto-dialer because of the vast number of calls he received and because he heard a pause when he answered his phone before a voice came on the line and he received prerecorded messages from Defendant.

15. Defendant placed an exorbitant amount of automated calls to Plaintiff's cellular telephone (901) ***-3138 in an attempt to reach an individual known only as "Eric".

16. Plaintiff does not now, nor has he ever, entered into a business relationship with Defendant.

17. On several occasions over the last four (4) years, Plaintiff instructed Defendant's agent(s)/representative(s) to stop calling his cellular telephone.

18. In or about April 2016, Plaintiff received a telephone call to his cellular telephone number from an agent/representative of Defendant seeking to recover an alleged debt from an individual known only as "Eric", who is unknown to Plaintiff. Plaintiff informed the agent/representative that he was not "Eric" that he did not know an individual by the name of "Eric" and demanded for the calls to stop. Defendant's agent/representative told Plaintiff that his cellular telephone number would be removed from Defendant's call list.

19. Despite actual knowledge of their wrongdoing, Defendant continued the campaign of abuse, calling Plaintiff despite the Plaintiff revoking any express consent Defendant may have believed they had to call his cellular telephone number

20. In or about June 2016, Plaintiff again spoke with an agent/representative of Defendant and demanded to know why he was still receiving calls to his cellular telephone. Plaintiff again explained to Defendant's agent/representative that he was not the person they were calling for and demanded for Defendant to stop calling his cellular telephone.

21. Defendant has a corporate policy to use an automatic telephone dialing system or a pre-recorded or artificial voice to individuals just as they did to Plaintiff's cellular telephone in this case.

23. Defendant's corporate policy is structured so as to continue to call individuals like Plaintiff, despite these individuals explaining to Defendant they do not wish to be called.

24. Defendant has numerous other federal lawsuits pending against them alleging similar violations as stated in this Complaint.

25. Defendant has numerous complaints against it across the country asserting that its automatic telephone dialing system continues to call despite being requested to stop.

26. Defendant has had numerous complaints against it from consumers across the country asking to not be called, however Defendant continues to call these individuals.

27. Defendant's corporate policy provided no means for Plaintiff to have Plaintiff's number removed from Defendant's call list.

28. Defendant has a corporate policy to harass and abuse individuals despite actual knowledge the called parties do not wish to be called.

29. Not one of Defendant's telephone calls placed to Plaintiff was for "emergency purposes" as specified in 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A).

30. Defendant willfully and/or knowingly violated the TCPA with respect to Plaintiff.

31. From each and every call placed without express consent by Defendant to Plaintiff's cellular telephone, Plaintiff suffered the injury of invasion of privacy and the intrusion upon his right of seclusion.

32. From each and every call without express consent placed by Defendant to Plaintiff's cellular telephone, Plaintiff suffered the injury of the occupation of his cellular telephone line and cellular telephone by unwelcome calls, making the phone unavailable for legitimate callers or outgoing calls while the telephone was ringing from Defendant's call.

33. From each and every call placed without express consent by Defendant to Plaintiff's cellular telephone, Plaintiff suffered the injury of unnecessary expenditure of his time. For calls he answered, the time he spent on the call was unnecessary as he repeatedly asked for the calls to stop. Even for unanswered calls, Plaintiff had to waste time to unlock the telephone and deal with missed call notifications and call logs that reflect the unwanted calls. This also impaired the usefulness of these features of Plaintiff's cellular telephone, which are designed to inform the user of important missed communications.

34. Each and every call placed without express consent by Defendant to Plaintiff's cellular telephone was an injury in the form of a nuisance and annoyance to Plaintiff. For calls that were answered, Plaintiff had to go to the unnecessary trouble of answering them. Even for unanswered calls, Plaintiff had to waste time to unlock the telephone and deal with missed call notifications and call logs that reflected the unwanted calls. This also impaired the usefulness of these features of Plaintiff's cellular telephone, which are designed to inform the user of important missed communications.

35. Each and every call placed without express consent by Defendant to Plaintiff's cellular telephone resulted in the injury of unnecessary expenditure of Plaintiff's cellular telephone's battery power.

36. Each and every call placed without express consent by Defendant to Plaintiff's cellular telephone where a voice message was left which occupied space in Plaintiff's telephone or network.

37. Each and every call placed without express consent by Defendant to Plaintiff's cellular telephone resulted in the injury of a trespass to Plaintiff's chattel, namely his cellular phone and his cellular phone services.

41. Defendant repeatedly placed non-emergency telephone calls to Plaintiff's cellular telephone using an automatic telephone dialing system or prerecorded or artificial voice without Plaintiff's prior express consent in violation of federal law, including 47 U.S.C § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable and judgment against Defendant for statutory damages, punitive damages, actual damages, treble damages, enjoinder from further violations of these parts and any other such relief the court may deem just and proper.
